

byblos art hotel

VILLA AMISTÀ

What to do in Verona and surroundings ...not only Wine and Opera

Contemporary Art Tour in Villa

From Marc Quinn to Damien Hirst passing by Indiana, Manzoni, Pomodoro and Beatriz Millar. A walk with the General Manager around the spaces of the Byblos Art Hotel to discover the masterpieces of the most famous contemporary artists.

Taste the wines of the Valpolicella

The Valpolicella, famous in the world for its wines, offers the opportunity to visit the wineries and taste their prime products directly at the source. Upon request, a luxury car with a private driver will take you on the curvy roads of the Valpolicella to see the most incredible lookouts.

I am on a boat... Lake Garda Edition

Riding the waves of the Garda Lake on board of a motor boat to admire the villages that decorate the coast. The tour will end in Sirmione with the visit of the Roman village that got its name from the Thermas of Catullus.

The Medieval... Valeggio and Borghetto

A tour of the "borghi" Valeggio sul Mincio and Borghetto to savor the dishes of the past, such as the Tortellini, in the shade of the medieval castles.

byblos art hotel

VILLA AMISTÀ

Tour of the Valpolicella with classic cars

Driving around the tortuous road of the ancient valley at the wheel of a majestic car the characterized for decades the 1900.

Shopping Experience in Verona

A pedestrian street of white marble surrounded by a variety of prestigious European brands. A stroll around town. A visit to the Byblos store with a discount of 20% - voucher to be asked at the Reception.

Tour of the hidden Verona

Verona, known for the l'Arena and Romeo & Juliette... but it offers much more! A tour to discover all the secrets spots of the Roman Verona.

Il Vittoriale degli Italiani

Set on the shores of Italy's Lake Garda in Gardone Riviera, Il Vittoriale degli Italiani (The Shrine of Italian Victories) was once home to the eccentric writer Gabriele D'Annunzio. Surrounded by a large garden with views across the sparkling waters of the lake and the mountains beyond, the spectacular setting makes the Vittoriale worth seeing for that alone.

Cascate di Molina

A few kilometres from Verona, in a spectacular natural setting, the Waterfall Park in Molina is waiting for you to discover the breathtaking beauty of its falls. Treat yourselves to a break and enjoy the surrounding nature and culture: nearby, you will find the atmosphere of the ancient hamlet of Molina enchanting.

Ville Palladiane

The Palladian villas of the Veneto are villas designed by architect Andrea Palladio, all whose buildings were erected in the Veneto, the mainland region of north-eastern Italy then under the political control of the Venetian Republic. Most villas are listed by UNESCO as part of a World Heritage Site named City of Vicenza and the Palladian Villas of the Veneto.

Tremosine

Tremosine is set on an upland that falls vertically on the west shore of Lake Garda and is part of the Parco Alto Garda Bresciano. The district offers a wide range of natural beauties, from Mediterranean to alpine environment, with lakes, valleys, hills covered with olive groves and mountains. Here many paths that were once used by the mules take directly to the mountain.

Vicenza and surroundings

The artistic perspective which animates the city and extends to its surroundings, where we witness a fascinating and indissoluble marriage between art and nature. Here the Medieval lives on in the centre of Marostica, while in Bassano there is a direct link to the Renaissance thanks to the bridge of the celebrated architect.

Castellaro Lagusello

The village of Castellaro Lagusello stands on a hill, overlooking a small lake in the shape of heart, surrounded by the hills of the moraine amphitheatre of Lake Garda.

In the village you will find the Castellaro Castle, dating back to the 12th- 13th century.

Mart Museum

The Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art of Trento and Rovereto, the Mart, is located in Trentino, in northern Italy, and is one of the most important Italian museums. Its large complex has been designed by the Swiss architect Mario Botta, together with the Rovereto engineer Giulio Andreolli, and inaugurated in Rovereto on 15 December 2002.

Soave

On the fringes of Lessinia, swathed in the mists of time, lies this enchanting medieval town, famed for its vintage white wine.

Visit Soave and you will discover not only a holiday destination but also a true philosophy of life.

Soave owes its worldwide fame to the Garganega grapes, which are used to make Soave and Recioto wines.

Special dinner at home with a local family

Book a seat and enjoy this great opportunity to have dinner with locals.

From home chefs to food lovers, our hosts can't wait for you to join their table.